

Presentations

You'll make two short in-class presentations on ancient Roman primary sources.

Each student signs up for presentations on two of the primary source excerpts assigned as class readings, one in the first half of the semester and one in the second half.

Your presentation will give the class your perspective on

- (a) what this reading means,
- (b) the author's perspective on the topics, and
- (c) how it relates to the material being discussed in the course.

Sign-ups. Sign up for the first of these presentations on the Sign-up #1 page, and the second on the Sign-up #2 page. Your presentation will be given the day that reading is assigned on the schedule.

Write-ups. A 2-to-3-page written version is due by the next class meeting after your presentation. More on that here.
